5. CLOSING REMARKS

Our trusted servants are responsible, and we often hold them to high standards for performance. Still, we do not treat our trusted servants as employees. Although service matters to the trusted servant and to the body, we still know that people have other priorities and that life sometimes intervenes. Our trusted servants tend to have jobs, families, or other parts of their lives

In Narcotics Anonymous, we are concerned with protecting ourselves from ourselves. Our Second Tradition is an example of this. By nature, we are strong-willed, self-centered people, Who are thrust together in N.A. We are mis managers and Not one of us is capable of consistently making a good decision. In Narcotics Anonymous, we rely on a loving God as he expresses Himself in our group conscience, rather than on personal opinion and ego. {Basic Text Tradition 3}
